Preview of Coming Attractions on Response to Intervention in Primary Grade Reading

December 2009

Topic: Response to Intervention in Primary Grade Reading

Practice: Universal Screening

Full Transcript

We're in the field collecting examples of how schools have implemented response to intervention in reading. Check out this preview of media and materials that will be posted soon.

Slide 1: Charting the Path

Bobbie Lamond, principal of Tri-Community Elementary (PA) school, will describe how the structure of RtI has helped her chart the school's path from lowest performing in the district to achievement success.

Slide 2: Universal Screening

Literacy coach Nadine Hoover describes how universal screening operates in her school.

Slide 3: Managing Small Groups

Second grade teacher Autumn LaPenta shows us how she manages groups at four reading levels: above benchmark, benchmark, strategic and intensive.

Slide 4: Different Core Instruction

Kindergarten teacher Lynn Carney differentiates instruction as children learn to sequence story events.

Slide 5: Intensive Instruction

Reading Specialist Nancy Bookwalter describes strategies for intensive instruction.
